Yes Big Belly owns the receptacle and the City leases and maintains the receptacles.

I am in contact with Big Belly and they will work with LANI on relocating to location that meets Big Belly requirements and City regulations.

Hello good morning Jose Rodriguez my name is Rodolfo Martell and I am currently working for the City of Los Angeles as a Transportation Engineering Associate I, partnering with the Transportation Engineering Associate III Austin Kano. We are currently working on the LANI Highland Park Project. We are in the process of relocating a Big Belly trashcan located on the North West Corner on the intersection of N Ave 57 and Figueroa Street. Big Belly organization is the owner of this trashcan.

I had the opportunity to contact Joe Albrecht from Big Belly, Misty Iwatsu from Old LA and Arturo Nevarez from LANI. We just wanted to inform you of this process and to know if you had any inconvenience with this trashcan being relocated. Basically, we were thinking of moving it from Figueroa street to N Ave 57 (swing around the corner on N Ave 57).

LADOT still needs to contact street services to make sure we are in compliance with their standards and regulations for the new location of the trashcan.

Here is a picture of the Big Belly Trashcan that will be relocated. If you have any questions please let me know. I will send out more updates throughout the
